Ladies Guild Games Day

Please join the Ladies Guild this Wednesday for their monthly Games Day in the Church Hall.

2018 Lay Conference 4 August

St Paul's School in Bald Hills from 8.30 am to 4 pm. Tickets are $15 per person. Please take a flyer from near the front door for more information.

Key Register

We are currently updating our Key Register. If you have any keys to doors at St Mark's please complete a Key Register form. If you have keys you no longer need or use please return them to the office.

Prizes for the Arts Festival Raffle

The Arts Festival C'tee is seeking prizes for the Raffle. If you frequent a coffee shop or restaurant (especially around the Clayfield area) please consider asking them if they could support St Mark's by offering a voucher. Likewise if you have business contacts through family or work we ask that you investigate whether they would like to support St Mark's in this way. Please let Marina Adams know if you have sourced a prize.

Garage Sale—Advance Notice!

The annual garage sale will be held on Saturday 28 July. If you are having a clear out over the holidays please think about us! It's too early to bring things to the hall as yet but watch out for a date in the next few weeks.

GFS Youth Group

Recommences this Friday 20 April 7pm. See the advertisement.

Kids Plus+

The next Kids Plus+ session is NEXT Sunday 22 April 9.30am.

For the Men of St Mark's

Please join us for a quiet drink at the Albion Hotel Cucina Bar on Thursday 26 April from 5.30pm.

Next Sunday—St Mark's Day Patronal Festival

Next Sunday we will celebrate the Feast of St Mark. We will also remember the 130th Anniversary of the opening of the original St Mark's Church at Albion (the exact date was not recorded but it was sometime in May 1888).

Scripture Sentence

Turn to God so that your sins may be wiped out, so that times of refreshing may come from the presence of the Lord. (Acts 3:19-20)

Prayer

Lord of life, by submitting to death, you conquered the grave; by being lifted upon the cross, you draw all peoples to you; by being raised from the dead, you restore to humanity all that was lost through sin: be with us in your risen power, that in word and deed we may proclaim the marvellous mystery of death and resurrection. For all praise is yours, now and throughout eternity. Amen.

FIRST READING AND PSALM

Acts 3:12-20

A reading from the Book of Acts

¹²When Peter saw it, he addressed the people, 'You Israelites, why do you wonder at this, or why do you stare at us, as though by our own power or piety we had made him walk?' ¹³The God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob, the God of our ancestors has glorified his servant Jesus, whom you handed over and rejected in the presence of Pilate, though he had decided to release him. ¹⁴But you rejected the Holy and Righteous One and asked to have a murderer given to you, ¹⁵and you killed the Author of life, whom God raised from the dead. To this we are witnesses. ¹⁶And by faith in his name, his name itself has made this man strong, whom you see and know; and the faith that is through Jesus has given him this perfect health in the presence of all of you.

¹⁷'And now, friends, I know that you acted in ignorance, as did also your rulers. ¹⁸In this way God fulfilled what he had foretold through all the prophets, that his Messiah would suffer. ¹⁹Repent therefore, and turn to God so that your sins may be wiped out, ²⁰so that times of refreshing may come from the presence of the Lord, and that he may send the Messiah appointed for you, that is, Jesus.

SECOND READING

1 John 2:15-17; 3:1-6

A reading from the first letter of John

¹⁵ Do not love the world or the things in the world. The love of the Father is not in those who love the world; ¹⁶for all that is in the world—the desire of the flesh, the desire of the eyes, the pride in riches—comes not from the Father but from the world. ¹⁷And the world and its desire are passing away, but those who do the will of God live for ever.

3 ¹See what love the Father has given us, that we should be called children of God; and that is what we are. The reason the world does not know us is that it did not know him. ²Beloved, we are God's children now; what we will be has not yet been revealed. What we do know is this: when he is revealed, we will be like him, for we will see him as he is. ³And all who have this hope in him purify themselves, just as he is pure.

⁴Everyone who commits sin is guilty of lawlessness; sin is lawlessness. ⁵You know that he was revealed to take away sins, and in him there is no sin. ⁶No one who abides in him sins; no one who sins has either seen him or known him.

GOSPEL READING

Gospel Acclamation

Alleluia! Alleluia! I am the first and the last, says the Lord, and the living one; I was dead, and behold, I am alive for evermore.

Alleluia!

The Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Luke

Glory to you, Lord Jesus Christ

[Luke 24:36b-48]

³⁶ While they were talking about this, Jesus himself stood among them and said to them, 'Peace be with you.'³⁷ They were startled and terrified, and thought that they were seeing a ghost. ³⁸ He said to them, 'Why are you frightened, and why do doubts arise in your hearts?' ³⁹ Look at my hands and my feet; see that it is I myself. Touch me and see; for a ghost does not have flesh and bones as you see that I have.'⁴⁰ And when he had said this, he showed them his hands and his feet. ⁴¹ While in their joy they were disbelieving and still wondering, he said to them, 'Have you anything here to eat?' ⁴² They gave him a piece of broiled fish, ⁴³ and he took it and ate in their presence. ⁴⁴ Then he said to them, 'These are my words that I spoke to you while I was still with you—that everything written about me in the law of Moses, the prophets, and the psalms must be fulfilled.'⁴⁵ Then he opened their minds to understand the scriptures, ⁴⁶ and he said to them, 'Thus it is written, that the Messiah is to suffer and to rise from the dead on the third day, ⁴⁷ and that repentance and forgiveness of sins is to be proclaimed in his name to all nations, beginning from Jerusalem. ⁴⁸ You are witnesses of these things.
