'The Vision Ever in their Sight' — A Concert to mark the 130th Anniversary of St Mark's 17 June 4.00pm

On Sunday 17th June we will hold a concert to mark the 130th Anniversary of the dedication of the first St Mark's Church at Albion in 1888. The concert will include a number of accomplished vocalists and musicians, as well as some of our younger musicians and students from Clayfield College and St Margaret's AGS. Please mark your diary now!

Photos of Old St Mark's

At the concert on 17 June there will be a photographic presentation of the original St Mark's Church, including photos of any parish events and people and of the early days of Albion. Please send us any photos of the old church so we can share them on this occasion. We would prefer digital copies. You could send them to admin@stmarksclayfield.org. Alternatively drop hard copies into the office and we will scan and return them to you.

Admission of Children to Holy Communion

We will soon be commencing preparation for the admission of younger children to Holy Communion (this is not Confirmation which is for children aged about 13 years and older). Please speak to Canon Murray, Deacon Stephen or ring the office to register your interest.

Sunday 10 June—8am Service only! Chaplaincy Breakfast

Please note that on Sunday 10 June there will only be one morning service—at 8am followed by the parish breakfast at 9.15am with funds raised going to support Chaplaincy at Eagle Junction State School.

Wednesday Eucharist

There is a Eucharist this Wednesday in the Church.

GFS Youth Group

FIRST READING AND PSALM (7.00am only)

Acts 2:1-21

A reading from the Book of Acts

When the day of Pentecost had come, they were all together in one place. ²And suddenly from heaven there came a sound like the rush of a violent wind, and it filled the entire house where they were sitting. ³Divided tongues, as of fire, appeared among them, and a tongue rested on each of them. ⁴All of them were filled with the Holy Spirit and began to speak in other languages, as the Spirit gave them ability.

⁵ Now there were devout Jews from every nation under heaven living in Jerusalem. ⁶And at this sound the crowd gathered and was bewildered, because each one heard them speaking in the native language of each. ⁷Amazed and astonished, they asked, 'Are not all these who are speaking Galileans?' ⁸And how is it that we hear, each of us, in our own native language? ⁹Parthians, Medes, Elamites, and residents of Mesopotamia, Judea and Cappadocia, Pontus and Asia, ¹⁰Phrygia and Pamphylia, Egypt and the parts of Libya belonging to Cyrene, and visitors from Rome, both Jews and proselytes, ¹¹Cretans and Arabs—in our own languages we hear them speaking about God's deeds of power.' ¹²All were amazed and perplexed, saying to one another, 'What does this mean?' ¹³But others sneered and said, 'They are filled with new wine.'

¹⁴ But Peter, standing with the eleven, raised his voice and addressed them: 'Men of Judea and all who live in Jerusalem, let this be known to you, and listen to what I say. ¹⁵Indeed, these are not drunk, as you suppose, for it is only nine o'clock in the morning. ¹⁶No, this is what was spoken through the prophet Joel: ¹⁷ "In the last days it will be, God declares, that I will pour out my Spirit upon all flesh, and your sons and your daughters shall prophesy, and your young men shall see visions, and your old men shall dream dreams. ¹⁸ Even upon my slaves, both men and women, in those days I will pour out my Spirit; and they shall prophesy. ¹⁹ And I will show portents in the heaven above and signs on the earth below, blood, and fire, and smoky mist. ²⁰ The sun shall be turned to darkness and the moon to blood, before the coming of the Lord's great and glorious day. ²¹ Then everyone who calls on the name of the Lord shall be saved."

REFLECTION

Jesus speaks of the Spirit as Advocate, and as a bringer of revelation: the Spirit is to 'prove the world wrong about sin and righteousness and judgement' (John 16.8), and to guide the Church into all truth. This is the Spirit of Truth, and when we breathe in God's truth like clean air, we will find that this same truth suffuses all our thoughts and words and deeds. On the day of Pentecost we see this in action: when the Holy Spirit comes upon the Eleven, the irrepensible truth of God flows forth from them in every language.

From Sunday by Sunday. The Royal School of Church Music.

FIRST READING - (9.30am only)

Acts 2:1-21

A reading from the Book of Acts

Verses 1-6 are read by the reader on roster:

When the day of Pentecost had come, they were all together in one place. ² And suddenly from heaven there came a sound like the rush of a violent wind, and it filled the entire house where they were sitting. ³ Divided tongues, as of fire, appeared among them, and a tongue rested on each of them. ⁴ All of them were filled with the Holy Spirit and began to speak in other languages, as the Spirit gave them ability. ⁵ Now there were devout Jews from every nation under heaven living in Jerusalem. ⁶ And at this sound the crowd gathered and was bewildered, because each one heard them speaking in the native language of each.

Verses 7-15 are read in different languages ALL AT THE SAME TIME:

⁷ Amazed and astonished, they asked, 'Are not all these who are speaking Galileans?' ⁸ And how is it that we hear, each of us, in our own native language? ⁹ Parthians, Medes, Elamites, and residents of Mesopotamia, Judea and Cappadocia, Pontus and Asia, ¹⁰ Phrygia and Pamphylia, Egypt and the parts of Libya belonging to Cyrene, and visitors from Rome, both Jews and proselytes, ¹¹ Cretans and Arabs—in our own languages we hear them speaking about God's deeds of power.' ¹² All were amazed and perplexed, saying to one another, 'What does this mean?' ¹³ But others sneered and said, 'They are filled with new wine.' ¹⁴ But Peter, standing with the eleven, raised his voice and addressed them: 'Men of Judea and all who live in Jerusalem, let this be known to you, and listen to what I say. ¹⁵ Indeed, these are not drunk, as you suppose, for it is only nine o'clock in the morning.

The rostered reader waits until all readers have finished the above, then reads the rest (16-21) alone:

¹⁶ ... this is what was spoken through the prophet Joel: ¹⁷ "In the last days it will be, God declares, that I will pour out my Spirit upon all flesh, and your sons and your daughters shall prophesy, and your young men shall see visions, and your old men shall dream dreams. ¹⁸ Even upon my slaves, both men and women, in those days I will pour out my Spirit; and they shall prophesy. ¹⁹ And I will show portents in the heaven above and signs on the earth below, blood, and fire, and smoky mist. ²⁰ The sun shall be turned to darkness and the moon to blood, before the coming of the Lord's great and glorious day. ²¹ Then everyone who calls on the name of the Lord shall be saved."

Hear the word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

SECOND READING

Romans 8:22-27

A reading from Paul's letter to the Romans

We know that the whole creation has been groaning in labour pains until now; ²³and not only the creation, but we ourselves, who have the first fruits of the Spirit, groan inwardly while we wait for adoption, the redemption of our bodies. ²⁴For in hope we were saved. Now hope that is seen is not hope. For who hopes for what is seen? ²⁵But if we hope for what we do not see, we wait for it with patience.

²⁶ Likewise the Spirit helps us in our weakness; for we do not know how to pray as we ought, but that very Spirit intercedes with sighs too deep for words. ²⁷And God, who searches the heart, knows what is the mind of the Spirit, because the Spirit intercedes for the saints according to the will of God.

GOSPEL READING

Gospel Acclamation

Alleluia! Alleluia! Come, Holy Spirit, fill the hearts of your faithful people and kindle in them the fire of your love.

Alleluia!

The Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to John

Glory to you, Lord Jesus Christ

[John 15:26-27;16:4b-15]

²⁶ 'When the Advocate comes, whom I will send to you from the Father, the Spirit of truth who comes from the Father, he will testify on my behalf.

²⁷ You also are to testify because you have been with me from the beginning.

⁴ But I have said these things to you so that when their hour comes you may remember that I told you about them. 'I did not say these things to you from the beginning, because I was with you. ⁵ But now I am going to him who sent me; yet none of you asks me, "Where are you going?" ⁶ But because I have said these things to you, sorrow has filled your hearts.

⁷ Nevertheless, I tell you the truth: it is to your advantage that I go away, for if I do not go away, the Advocate will not come to you; but if I go, I will send him to you. ⁸ And when he comes, he will prove the world wrong about sin and righteousness and judgement: ⁹ about sin, because they do not believe in me; ¹⁰ about righteousness, because I am going to the Father and you will see me no longer; ¹¹ about judgement, because the ruler of this world has been condemned.

¹² 'I still have many things to say to you, but you cannot bear them now.

¹³ When the Spirit of truth comes, he will guide you into all the truth; for he will not speak on his own, but will speak whatever he hears, and he will declare to you the things that are to come. ¹⁴ He will glorify me, because he will take what is mine and declare it to you. ¹⁵ All that the Father has is mine. For this reason I said that he will take what is mine and declare it to you.

The Gospel of the Lord

Praise to you Lord Jesus Christ
