

ADMISSION TO HOLY COMMUNION

Rev. Nicki: I present to you, the St Mark's Parish Community, Henry, Angus and Sapphire who seek to be admitted to Holy Communion. They follow in the footsteps of many other Christians before them.

Rev Nicki Henry, Angus and Sapphire, you seek to be admitted to Holy Communion? I do.

Do you believe in God who is Father, Son and Holy Spirit?
I do.

Do you understand that God is faithful, loving and kind and calls us to follow in the footsteps of Jesus? I do.

Do you believe that Jesus invites us to share Communion together as a community and to show hospitality to those around us? I do.

Do you believe God forgives us when we tell God we are sorry for our sins? I do.

Henry, Angus and Sapphire, will you try your best to live the Christian life and to share in Holy Communion as often as you are able? I will.

Rev Nicki (addressing the congregation)

Will you, the members of the St Mark's Parish community support Henry, Angus and Sapphire, your brothers and sister in Christ, as they continue to grow in faith, journey amongst us into the Kingdom, and share in the worshipping and serving life of this parish?

All We will, with God's help.

Rev Nicki Henry, Angus and Sapphire, I admit you to the sacrament of Holy Communion. May God bless you all the days of your life. Amen.

St Mark's Family, I present to you Henry Peters, Angus Peters and Sapphire Waigana who have been admitted to Holy Communion.

FIRST READING -

A reading from Isaiah 62:6-12

⁶ Upon your walls, O Jerusalem, I have posted sentinels; all day and all night they shall never be silent. You who remind the Lord, take no rest, ⁷ and give him no rest until he establishes Jerusalem and makes it renowned throughout the earth. ⁸ The Lord has sworn by his right hand and by his mighty arm: I will not again give your grain to be food for your enemies, and foreigners shall not drink the wine for which you have laboured; ⁹ but those who garner it shall eat it and praise the Lord, and those who gather it shall drink it in my holy courts.

¹⁰ Go through, go through the gates, prepare the way for the people; build up, build up the highway, clear it of stones, lift up an ensign over the peoples. ¹¹ The Lord has proclaimed to the end of the earth: Say to daughter Zion, 'See, your salvation comes; his reward is with him, and his recompense before him.'

¹² They shall be called, 'The Holy People, The Redeemed of the Lord'; and you shall be called, 'Sought Out, A City Not Forsaken.'

Lord, I will sing for ever of your loving-kindnesses:

my mouth shall proclaim your faithfulness throughout all generations.

I have said of your loving-kindness that it is built for ever:

you have established your faithfulness in the heavens.

The Lord said 'I have made a covenant with my chosen:

I have sworn an oath to my servant David.

'I will establish your line for ever:

and build up your throne for all generations.'

Let the heavens praise your wonders, O Lord:

and let your faithfulness be sung in the assembly of the holy ones.

For who amidst the clouds can be compared to the Lord:

or who is like the Lord amongst the gods?

A God to be feared in the council of the holy ones:

great and terrible above all that are around him.

O Lord God of hosts, who is like you?:

your power and your faithfulness are all about you.

You rule the raging of the sea:

when its waves surge, you still them.

GOSPEL READING - Mark 16:1-15

The Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Mark, chapter 16, beginning at the 1st verse

Glory to you Lord Jesus Christ

¹ When the sabbath was over, Mary Magdalene, and Mary the mother of James, and Salome bought spices, so that they might go and anoint him. ² And very early on the first day of the week, when the sun had risen, they went to the tomb. ³ They had been saying to one another, 'Who will roll away the stone for us from the entrance to the tomb?'

⁴ When they looked up, they saw that the stone, which was very large, had already been rolled back. ⁵ As they entered the tomb, they saw a young man, dressed in a white robe, sitting on the right side; and they were alarmed. ⁶ But he said to them, 'Do not be alarmed; you are looking for Jesus of Nazareth, who was crucified. He has been raised; he is not here. Look, there is the place they laid him. ⁷ But go, tell his disciples and Peter that he is going ahead of you to Galilee; there you will see him, just as he told you.' ⁸ So they went out and fled from the tomb, for terror and amazement had seized them; and they said nothing to anyone, for they were afraid.

⁹ Now after he rose early on the first day of the week, he appeared first to Mary Magdalene, from whom he had cast out seven demons. ¹⁰ She went out and told those who had been with him, while they were mourning and weeping. ¹¹ But when they heard that he was alive and had been seen by her, they would not believe it. ¹² After this he appeared in another form to two of them, as they were walking into the country. ¹³ And they went back and told the rest, but they did not believe them. ¹⁴ Later he appeared to the eleven themselves as they were sitting at the table; and he upbraided them for their lack of faith and stubbornness, because they had not believed those who saw him after he had risen. ¹⁵ And he said to them, 'Go into all the world and proclaim the good news to the whole creation.'

The Gospel of the Lord

Praise to you Lord Jesus Christ

SECOND READING

A reading from Ephesians 4:7-16

But each of us was given grace according to the measure of Christ's gift. Therefore it is said, 'When he ascended on high he made captivity itself a captive; he gave gifts to his people.' (When it says, 'He ascended', what does it mean but that he had also descended into the lower parts of the earth?

He who descended is the same one who ascended far above all the heavens, so that he might fill all things.)

The gifts he gave were that some would be apostles, some prophets, some evangelists, some pastors and teachers, to equip the saints for the work of ministry, for building up the body of Christ, until all of us come to the unity of the faith and of the knowledge of the Son of God, to maturity, to the measure of the full stature of Christ. We must no longer be children, tossed to and fro and blown about by every wind of doctrine, by people's trickery, by their craftiness in deceitful scheming.

But speaking the truth in love, we must grow up in every way into him who is the head, into Christ, from whom the whole body, joined and knitted together by every ligament with which it is equipped, as each part is working properly, promotes the body's growth in building itself up in love.
